

Antwerp: a Pocketsize Metropolis

Antwerp – the port city on the Scheldt, city of Rubens, renowned for diamonds and fashion. All of these different aspects are what make Antwerp into a real city: a vibrant, welcoming metropolis with sprawling green areas for relaxation. Antwerp is a veritable cultural capital that prides itself on its impressive architecture and splendid art. Moreover, Antwerp is a fashionista’s dream destination thanks to the stores of its world-renowned designers. The cafes only serve the best beers and food-lovers can enjoy the most delicious traditional and multicultural cuisine in the city’s restaurants. Antwerp: a pocket-sized metropolis that is sure to conquer anyone’s heart in no time at all.

Antwerp – exactly what you expect from a city: heart-warming and simple, but also lively and cosmopolitan; a city with eye-catching architecture, chic shops, impressive monuments, jazzy clubs, inspired art and tantalizing cafes.

Antwerp – home to Flemish Baroque painter Rubens; a city that prides itself on outstanding museums, picturesque galleries, sculpted streets and architectural gems, but also laced with beautiful green areas and peaceful corners. Culture, history, vibrant nightlife and world-class shopping are all within easy reach, as the city is accessible by air, rail, road and even by water. The port of Antwerp is the second largest in Europe, and is among the top ten in the world.
